

Early Stage Support Group

Early Stage support groups are for people living with dementia and their care partners

The Eight Week Early Stage Support Group provides an excellent opportunity for people to discuss topics such as receiving and disclosing a diagnosis, changing relationships, future planning, legal and financial matters, and much more!

The support groups are a safe and supportive environment where those sharing this journey can connect and offer emotional support to one another. Friendships are frequently formed. Sometimes the entire group meets together, and at other times caregivers meet separately from those with the diagnosis. A brief in person meeting between the caregiver, person with the diagnosis and Ralph Patrick, regional director, is required.

This group is very popular and fills up quickly, so if you are interested in attending please contact Ralph Patrick at 303.813.1669 x362 or rpatrick@alz.org to schedule an initial interview.
